

IMMIGRATION & HUMAN RIGHTS CINEMA

POST-FILM DISCUSSIONS MODERATED BY GRADUATE STUDENTS FROM THE INSTITUTE FOR CONFLICT ANALYSIS AND RESOLUTION

Sin Nombre

6:30 p.m. Tuesday September 15

A searing look at the immigration "problem." Brilliant from beginning to end. Without a doubt, one of the most impactful movies you will ever see!

<R rating includes violence, language and sexual content>

Crossing Arizona

6:30 p.m. Tuesday October 6

As up-to-date as the nightly news, but far more in-depth, Crossing Arizona reveals the political stances people take when immigration and border policy fails everyone.

The Gatekeeper

6:30 p.m. Tuesday November 10

"The Gatekeeper" explores the universal truth that humanity knows no borders.

Abandoned: the betrayal of America's immigrants

6:30 p.m. Tuesday December 8

A look at the law that has threatened countless legal permanent residents with deportation for minor offences in their past, through the personal stories of several asylum seekers.