¹Computerized CLEP testing begins in July 2001. Any exam can be taken on any scheduled test date starting July 6, 2001. In addition, CLEP is moving to a uniform credit-granting score of 50.

²If you score the higher of the two scores on the language exams, you will get credit for all 4 semesters of that language. For example, a score of 50 on a Spanish exam would receive 10 credits (SPA 101, 102) and a score of 54 on the Spanish exam would receive 16 credits (SPA 102, 102 and SPA 201, 202).
