Spring 2011

Mason Around

the Globe

Have you studied abroad? Are you interested in sharing your experience, and getting your writing published in an award-winning magazine?

The Office of Student Media's biannual magazine VoxPop is entitled Mason Around the Globe this semester, and it focuses on George Mason University's diverse opportunities to study and travel abroad. The magazine will feature testimonials, quotes and photographs from students who have studied abroad through Mason.

You can be involved as little or as much as you want. We need students who have studied abroad to:

1. Write personal narratives about their experience abroad
2. Provide photographs or videos of their trip abroad
3. Give quotations about their stay
4. Give interviews discussing their time abroad

The deadline for content is Friday, March 25. Please see attached prompts for guidelines for writing narratives, submitting quotes or providing photographs to VoxPop.

We also need students to copy edit, promote and design for the magazine. If you are interested in becoming involved, please contact the Editor-in-Chief Nicole Wiesenbahn at nwiesenh@masonlive.gmu.edu.
