

Office of Fellowships

2011-2012 Fellowship Deadlines

The Office of Fellowships provides advice and information to high-achieving Mason undergraduates and recent alumni about the application process for nationally competitive fellowships and graduate schools. Competitive fellowships require extensive time and effort completing the application process, which is why applications should be started early and completed well advance of the published deadline. Because most fellowships require applicants to receive an institutional endorsement, George Mason University implements a campus deadline to ensure that students have enough time to prepare competitive applications.

Below is a list of scholarship and fellowship campus and final deadlines. All campus deadlines are 11:59pm on the posted day. Applications will not be accepted after the deadline.

Fellowship	Campus Deadline	Final Deadline
Marshall Scholarship*	August 31, 2011	October 3, 2011
Mitchell Scholarship	August 31, 2011	October 4, 2011
Fulbright Scholarship	September 15, 2011	October 17, 2011
NSF Graduate Research Fellowship	October 15, 2011	mid-November 2011
Critical Language Scholarship	October 31, 2011	mid-November 2011
Rangel Graduate Fellowship Program	November 15, 2011	January 21, 2012
Goldwater Scholarship	November 15, 2011	late January 2012
Truman Scholarship*	November 15, 2011	February 7, 2012
Boren Scholarship	November 15, 2011	February 9, 2012
Rangel Summer Enrichment Program	December 1, 2011	February 11, 2011
Institute for Int'l Public Policy (IIPP)	December 1, 2011	February 15, 2012
Udall Scholarship	December 1, 2011	early March 2012

* Requires a campus interview for institutional nomination.

2012 Declaration of Candidacy Deadlines

All interested candidates for named fellowships such as the Marshall, Mitchell, and Rhodes Scholarships for the 2012-2013 academic year must declare their intent to apply no later than Friday, April 13, 2012. Declaration of Intent forms will be available online in the spring at fellowships.gmu.edu.

Questions? Contact Dr. LaNitra Berger, Director of Fellowships, at lberger2@gmu.edu.