

You are cordially invited...
...to the George Washington Masonic Memorial's
2012 George Washington Symposium,
beginning at 1:00pm on February 22, 2012.
The event is free and open to the public.

Presentations during the Symposium will include:

Professor Benjamin Huggins:

“Commander in Chief - George Washington at War, 1778-1781;”

Professor Rosemary Zagarri:

“George Washington and the Challenge of Party Politics in the 1790s;”

and the George Washington Memorial Award Speaker -

Professor Emeritus Peter Henriques:

“Realistic Visionary: The Evolving Leadership of George Washington.”

Please call Director of Museum and Library Collections Mark Tabbert at
(703) 683-2007, x2012 if you have any questions.