

Johnson Center Library Workshops

September 2013

Library 101

An introduction to Library services and resources. Learn to navigate through the catalog, databases, inPrimo, and Credo Literati.

Tues. 9/3 @ 3pm
Thur. 9/5 @11am
Mon. 9/9 @3pm
Wed. 9/11 @1pm
Fri. 9/13 @11am
Tues. 9/17 @11am
Thur. 9/19 @3pm
Mon. 9/23 @3pm
Wed. 9/25 @11am
Fri. 9/27 @1pm

Putting Google Scholar to Work

Come learn how to use Google Scholar, including the advanced features, the possibilities for your research papers.

Thur. 9/5 @3pm

A Refresher for Returning Adult Learners

Has it been a while since you were in school? This workshop gives returning adult learners an update on searching and working with online catalogs, electronic databases, online journals, and e-books.

Thur. 9/5 @ 3:30pm

Zotero 101

Capture and collect your source information, organize your sources, and create citations and bibliographies.

Fri. 9/6 @ 11am

Citation Management

How to identify, read, and construct citations-while incorporating them into Zotero.

Wed. 9/25 @3pm

Testing Resources for Graduate Exam Success

Learn to use a variety of library resources to study for the GRE, LSAT, MCAT, GMAT, and scholarships.

Thur. 9/26 @3pm

Source Mining

Learn the difference between primary, secondary, and tertiary sources, while also discovering how to mine known sources for additional, new sources.

Thur. 9/12 @3pm

JSTORorama

Learn the ins and outs of this misunderstood database, including how to perfect your search and using it in connection with other databases.

Wed. 9/11 @3pm

Discover research skills for academic success!

library.gmu.edu/classes