

The History Graduate Student Association (HGSA) at California State University, Fresno announces the 16th Annual History Graduate Student Symposium, which will be held on Saturday, March 22, 2014 in Fresno, California.

HGSA is now accepting papers from graduate students in any field of historical inquiry, but especially those demonstrating innovative and/or interdisciplinary approaches.

Please submit a 100-word proposal and a current curriculum vita to Dalia Haitayan at daliahaitayan@mail.fresnostate.edu by February 14, 2014.

The keynote speaker at the symposium will be Michael J. Kramer of Northwestern University. Dr. Kramer is author of The Republic of Rock: Music and Citizenship in the Sixties Counterculture and his talk will focus on digital humanities and the folk music revival on the West Coast.

The 16th Annual History Graduate Student Symposium is sponsored by Associated Students, Inc., the College of Social Sciences, and the Department of History at California State University, Fresno.
