

THE NEXT STEP:

A Forum for Future Structural Engineers

- Who: Structural engineering college students (others welcome)
- When: 10:30 am to 3:30 pm on Friday, November 20, 2015
- Where: George Washington University's Jack Morton Auditorium, Washington, DC
- How: Save the date. More information to follow.
- Questions: seamwymg@gmail.com

- Key Note Speaker

- Ron Klemencic, PE, SE, Hon. AIA

- Chairman and C.E.O. of 200-person Magnusson Klemencic Associates
 - 1985 BSCE Purdue University;
1986 MSSE University of CA Berkeley
 - 29 years in engineering; projects in 24 states and 23 countries
 - Multi-block developments up to 7 million ft² and towers up to 112 stories
 - Interest as young boy in small Wisconsin town led to collaboration with world-renown architects and industry-leading research and advancements
- Presentations and Q&A w/ local structural engineers
- Career fair
- Office tours available after the event
- Lunch will be provided
- Free registration for students and faculty

Structural Engineers Association of Metropolitan Washington
Young Member Group