

Special Program

“My Grandmother Told Me: A Tribute to African American Women”
Debra Mims: Traditional Storyteller

Join us as we listen to an inspiring original tale told by Debra Mims, story-teller. Debra will tell a story of enslaved life on the Arlington Plantation through the eyes of a young woman who lived on the plantation and experienced, first hand, enormous changes and eventual emancipation during the Civil War.

Saturday, June 4, 10:30 AM

Location: Arlington House, in the center of Arlington
National Cemetery.

Groups of 20 or more contact:
arlingtonhouseevents@nps.gov