

SYRIA

MONDAY , 24 OCTOBER 2016
LIBRARY READING ROOM 2001
GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY

ON THE BRINK (?)

WHAT IS ALEPPO?

For the past five and a half years, analysis on Syria focused on the political, military, and humanitarian aspects of the conflict. This panel will examine its discursive and traumatic dimensions, with an eye to the history of the conflict and the many facets of the current geopolitical escalation

PANELISTS

BASSAM HADDAD
OMAR DAHI
MARWA DAUDI
SAMER ABOUD

COMPETING NARRATIVES: THE BINARY TRAP
ASSESSING DOMINANT HISTORIOGRAPHIES
THE CONFLICT AND THE TRAUMA
BEFORE & AFTER THE STALEMATE: SYRIA'S MANY FUTURES

PIZZA AND DRINKS

*Sponsored by Middle East and Islamic Studies Program, Global Interdisciplinary Studies, Arab Studies Institute, University Life
Global Affairs, AVACGIS Center for Global Islamic Studies, Schar School of Policy and Government, Department of History*