

Kaliningrad Crisis Simulation

Saturday, November 4th, 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM

Founders Hall and Hazel Hall (various rooms)

Expert facilitators from the U.S. Army War College join us to stage a simulation that explores a fictional clash between Russia and NATO over the former's right of access to the Kaliningrad district across the Baltic States and Poland. Participants will take on the role of a state or composite actor in a potential conflict in Northeastern Europe. Each participant team has its own specific objectives and guidelines for action. Register now - space is limited!

Participation in this event is RESTRICTED to students of George Mason University.
