

SPRING 2018

GATEWAY LIBRARY WORKSHOPS

Zotero

Jan. 24-May 3

Wednesdays and Thursdays, 3-4pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134G

Zotero is a free, easy-to-use tool to help you collect, organize, cite, and share your research sources.

Writing about Numbers

Thursday, Feb. 8, 1-2pm

Thursday, March 8, 1-2pm

Thursday, April 5, 1-2pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134 G

This workshop will cover the basics of reading statistical tables, citing statistical information, and the best places to start looking for statistics.

Apps and Software for Studying and Research

Tuesday, Feb. 13, 3-4pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134 G

You will explore software and apps for research, reading, writing, note-taking, and other essential tools for studying.

Using Google Scholars: Tips and Tricks

Thursday, Feb. 15, 2-3pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134G

Google Scholar offers many tools that can help you advance your research. Learn how to leverage the power of Google in combination with Mason Libraries' databases to find the materials you need.

Fake News Workshop

Wednesday, Feb. 21, 4-5pm

Wednesday April 18, 4-5pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134G

Beware Fake News!!! Check out this workshop to learn strategies for analyzing news sources, and tips and tricks for finding credible news sources.

Research Made Easy

Tuesday, Feb. 27, 3-4pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134G

Not sure where to start with your research assignment? Want to make researching more efficient? In this workshop you will explore strategies and tricks for databases and open web searching.

How to Do a Literature Review

Tuesday, March 20, 4-5pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134 G

Have to tackle a lit review assignment this semester? Come learn about literature reviews, how to start the process, how to find good sources and more.

Wikipedia Editing

Tuesday, March 27, 3-4pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134G

Want to learn how to get started editing Wikipedia? In this hands-on workshop, you will learn how Wikipedia works and why it matters, as well as how to edit and/or contribute as users and scholars.

DIY Zines Workshop

Tuesday, April 3, 3-4pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134G

What's a zine? Well, it's whatever you want it to be! In this hands-on workshop, you will learn about zines and self-publishing, how to use and find copyright-free art for your own designs, and how to make your own zine.

Library Resources for Career Research and Job Hunting

Monday, April 23, 3-4 pm

Gateway Literacy Lab, 134 G

Prepping for a big interview or just want to know where to start your career? In this workshop, you will explore accessing key information about companies, fields, and industries of interest, plus other library resources to help you develop your professional skills.