

Office of the Chief Data Officer at the Federal Reserve Board

Job Description: The IT Intern assists with programming tasks, including but not limited to application development and testing, as well as troubleshooting and research.

This is a year-round internship opportunity, and preference will be given to students attending local colleges and universities.

Primary Location: DC-Washington

Employee Status: Temporary

Overtime Status: Non-exempt

Job Type: Internship

Travel: No

Shift: Day Job

Years Of Experience Required: 0

Education Required: HS Graduate or Equivalent

Relocation Provided: No

Salary Grade Low:17

Salary Grade High: 22

Posting Date: Dec 8, 2017

Job Qualifications: Intern will be working in the data management area within the Office of the Chief Data Officer (OCDO). Major responsibilities will include reviewing and documenting existing data management processes (PERL, SAS, SQL, Informatica), developing and presenting suggested improvements for existing processes, and implementing changes to existing processes to create efficiencies and increase data quality. Intern will work closely with OCDO business partners to gather requirements for new processes.

Contact: Justin Rinker Manager | Data Management, Integration, and Dissemination (DMID) Federal Reserve Board of Governors

Office: 202-452-2270 justin.rinker@frb.gov

Learn More About OCDO