

*ARCE 2019 Annual Meeting
April 12-14: Washington, D.C.*

Dear ARCE Supporter,

Make plans now to attend the 2019 Annual Meeting of the American Research Center in Egypt! ARCE's Annual Meeting is your opportunity to hear about the newest research and join the conversation, discuss the latest project developments, reconnect with colleagues and friends, peruse and purchase publications and enjoy special events and receptions.

Please review all enclosed materials and return completed forms with the envelope provided or send to info@arce.org. You can also find hotel information and online registration at arce.org/annualmeeting.

If your membership recently expired, or will expire soon, be sure to renew to take advantage of the members' registration rate. Register by April 8, 2019 to receive the early-bird rate.

Our heartfelt thanks to our Gold Sponsor, Walbridge, for its generous support of ARCE's Annual Meeting.

Some meeting highlights:

- ARCE General Members' Meeting: Attend the members' meeting to review ARCE's accomplishments over the last year and vote on the 2019-20 elected board of governors.
- Keynote Event and Reception: Professor Dominique Valbelle, co-director and epigrapher of the Swiss-Franco-Sudanese Mission of Kerma/Dokki Gel, will provide a special keynote address at the George Washington Masonic National Memorial in Alexandria, Virginia.
- Chapter Council Fundraiser: Special guest Nancy Donnelly will share details of her experience as a National Geographic explorer and videographer, including her adventures while working in Egypt.
- ARCE Members' Dinner Reception: Enjoy an evening with colleagues, friends and fellow enthusiasts for a dinner buffet and cash bar.
- National Geographic Museum Queens of Egypt Exhibit: Discounted tickets ($10) offered to ARCE members and Annual Meeting attendees. Use promotion code ARCEQUEENS to purchase tickets at tickets.nationalgeographic.com

We look forward to welcoming our returning and first-time attendees!

Best Wishes,

Louise Bertini
Director for Egypt
