

Spring 2021 Graduate HIST Courses

Type	Instructor	Number	Topic	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	4:30pm	USA Origins-1861	USA 1861-1914	USA 1914-present	Europe to 1789	Europe 1789-1914	Europe 1914-present	World: Africa	World: Latin American/Caribbean	Applied
Introductory	Chang	610	Study and Writing of History (6:30 - 9:10 pm)			•							•
Reading	Stearns	510/615	Approaches to Mdrn Wrld Histry		•			•	•	•	•		•	•	•	•
	Karush	535	Fascism and Populism			•								•		•
	Scully	535/615/635	Am/Erly Mdrn Wrld: Oceans/Empr				•		•			•				•
	Carton	565/615	South Africa & the US		•					•	•				•
	Park	606	Themes in European History II				•						•	•
	Lebovic	615	US National Security State	•							•
	Hamner	617	The Civil War Era	•						•
	Zagarri	620	Devl Erly Rep: 1783-1815			•			•
	Ritterhouse	622	U.S. South Since 1865			•				•	•
Applied	Tayac	685	Oral History	•													•
	Kierner	688	Mason Legacies			•		•	•								•
	Robertson	688	Spatial History				•										•
	Crew	691	Museum Studies		•												•
Research	Schrag	797	Technology				•

Several courses are listed as fulfilling more than one requirement. In these cases, you may choose which requirement to fulfill with the course, but each course can only fill one slot.

This chart is designed to reflect information on Patriot Web and the department website. If you notice any discrepancies, please regard Patriot Web as authoritative and alert Professor Schrag to the error on this chart.