CSPS Presents:

Virtual Staff Ride: The Battle of Hamburger Hill

The Center for Security Policy Studies invites you to participate in our first-ever virtual staff ride on the Battle of Hamburger Hill. For Schar School graduate students interested in military strategy and history, this event will give you the opportunity to step into the shoes of the individuals who planned one of the most infamous battles of the Vietnam War. Participants will take on the roles of military planners and devise their own battle plans using actual intelligence documents from the Vietnam War. Students who participate will gain insights on military and strategic culture as well as the importance of strategy in the history of U.S. foreign policymaking.

When: October 31 from 11 am to 3 pm, and November 1 from 11 am to 1 pm (via Zoom)

Where to register: csp.schar.gmu.edu
