

FALL 2021 PUBLIC RESEARCH TALKS BY CHR RESIDENTIAL FELLOWS

CHR 2021-22 ANNUAL THEME
PASTS/PRESENTS/FUTURES

Monday, October 4: Associate Professor Vanessa Schulman
"The Past, Present, and Future of Emancipation: Vincent Colyer and Thomas Nast Envision Freedom in 1863"

Tuesday, October 19: PhD Candidate Eric Ross
"An Emphatic Refusal to Forget': Empathy and Memory at the National Museum of the American Indian"

Wednesday, October 27: Associate Professor Brian Platt
"Wind, Worms, and Weeds: Rescuing the Past in Early Modern Japan"

Thursday, November 4: Assistant Professor Yasemin İpek
"Crisiswork: Everyday Activism, Ethics, and Class Mobility in Lebanon"

Friday, November 12: PhD Candidate Christina Riley
"Women on the Web: A Study in Online Solidarity Struggles and the Emergence of the Feminist Digital Collective"

Wednesday, November 17: Associate Professor Michael Malouf
"Oil and Cultures of Transition"

FROM 12-1 PM ON THE GIVEN DATES
IN PERSON, HORIZON HALL 6325
SHIFT TO HYBRID POSSIBLE
[ZOOM LINKS TO BE MADE
AVAILABLE IN THAT CASE]

Center for
Humanities Research