

Office of Diversity, Outreach, and Inclusive Learning presents

George Mason University's College of Engineering and Computing and the Office of Diversity, Outreach, and Inclusive Learning (DOIL) would like to invite students, faculty, and staff to participate in the launch of DOIL's Computing and Engineering Diversity Resource Information Center (CEDRIC).

BLAST Off Week for CEDRIC will occur from October 25 to 29 and will showcase some of the information and resources students, faculty, and staff can expect to find at CEDRIC.

We hope you come, ask questions, and engage with the panelists, presenters, and each other and discuss what useful resources and communities you found or would like to see at the college.

BELONGING Monday, October 25 (11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) | Atrium

BLAST Off Week begins with a showcase of student groups and organizations who will promote their mission, values, and resources for diverse students looking for peer communities that will support them socially, academically, and professionally.

LEADERSHIP Tuesday, October 26 (11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) | Stackable Conference Rooms ENGR 1602, ENGR 2901, ENGR 3507

Join us and explore the on-campus and off-campus resources and opportunities available for diverse students, faculty, and staff within CEC to engage in leadership roles.

ACCESS Wednesday, October 27 (11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.) | Computer Science Conference Room 4201

Want to find out more about research and funding opportunities available to diverse undergraduate and graduate students? Come hear from university resource centers and offices with information on support you can receive when applying to fellowships, graduate schools, and for research and study abroad opportunities.

SUCCESS Thursday, October 28 (11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) | Research Hall 163

Engage in our Career Services Sessions where industry advising experts discuss the resources available on campus for diverse students to get them career ready to pursue a myriad of internship and employment opportunities.

TRANSFORMATION Friday, October 29 (All Day) | Atrium

Inclusive Excellence is an exciting initiative being launched at George Mason University. Come mix and mingle in the Atrium (socially distanced, of course) and view the recorded walk-through and virtual launch of CEDRIC. As we have been transformed to embrace more virtual options, we hope to be transformed into a more inclusive community for all students, faculty, and staff.