

SOCIAL JUSTICE CAREER DAY

NOVEMBER 3

Have a passion for human rights, equality, and making a difference? Join us for Social Justice Career Day to learn how to channel your energy into meaningful work!

A Career with Purpose

10-11 am EDT

Virtual

To kick off Social Justice Career Day, learn about the importance of aligning your values with your career goals. This event is co-sponsored by the Center for the Advancement of Well-Being.

Doing the Work: Careers Fighting Anti-Asian Hate

noon-1 pm EDT

Virtual

The coronavirus pandemic fueled anti-Asian sentiments around the world resulting in increased discrimination and violence against Asians & Pacific Islanders, particularly women. Come meet activists and professionals who are fighting against this “pandemic” of hate.

Beyond Diversity Statements

2:30-3:30 pm EDT

Virtual

Meet employers who model Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion in their hiring practice, policies, and workplace culture, and learn how you can identify additional employers that align with your identities and values.

Your Voice, Your Vote, Your Vocation

5-6 pm EDT

Spirit Row-Fenwick Library Quad (Rain Location: JC Kiosk)

Voter rights and fighting voter suppression are critical issues right now. Community leaders, elected officials, and employers will discuss their efforts to increase engagement in the voting process, as well as how you can turn your interest in this issue into a volunteer role or career.

GO.GMU.EDU/SOCIALJUSTICECAREER

University Career Services

703.993.2370

careers.gmu.edu

SUB I, 3400